

A How do you feel?

Language help

We use emotion and feeling(s) for something which someone feels strongly about, e.g. love, hate or anger. Emotions are part of our character, e.g. Timo is a very emotional person. [shows his feelings easily] Feeling is often plural, e.g. She doesn't like talking about her feelings.

I'm very proud¹ of my son's success, but I'm a bit disappointed² that the local paper hasn't shown more interest in the story.

¹ feeling good because you (or someone you know) has done something well

² unhappy because someone or something was not as good as you hoped.

The politicians seem confused³ about what to do, so I'm not hopeful⁴ that things will improve.

³ not able to think clearly or understand something

⁴ feeling positive about a future situation

We were curious⁵ to see what all the noise was about, but I felt anxious⁶ when I saw how angry the men were, and really scared⁷ when they started coming towards us.

⁵ wanting to know or learn about something

⁶ worried

⁷ afraid; syn frightened

I think Harry ended the relationship because his girlfriend was getting jealous⁸, but now he's quite upset⁹.

⁸ unhappy and angry because someone you love seems too interested in another person

B The effect of the weather on our feelings

Why do people say they feel more cheerful [happy] when the sun shines, and miserable [unhappy] when it's raining? Why do some people suffer from SAD (seasonal affective disorder), which makes them feel depressed [unhappy, often for a long time, and without hope for the future] during long dark winters? Can the weather really affect our mood [the way we feel at a particular time], or is it just in our imaginations?

C The effect of colour on our emotions

COLOUR can have an effect on our mood, but how do specific colours relate to our emotions?

RED can make us feel energetic¹, but it can also indicate anger².

PINK though, is softer and more about maternal love and caring for³ people.

GREEN is associated with nature and is good for people suffering from stress⁴.

BLUE is relaxing and helps us to be creative⁵, but too much dark blue can make us depressed.

¹ wanting to be busy and doing a lot of things

² being angry

³ looking after someone, especially someone young or old

⁴ feelings of worry caused by difficult situations such as problems at work

⁵ good at thinking of new ideas or using our imagination
