

A

Fashion

FASHION: WHICH ARE YOU?

- ☐ I usually shop<sup>1</sup> with a friend.
- ☐ I always try on clothes<sup>2</sup> before I buy them.
- ☐ I sometimes buy clothes that don't suit me<sup>3</sup>, just because they're fashionable<sup>4</sup>.
- ☐ If I buy trousers or a skirt, I buy a shirt or top to go with<sup>5</sup> it at the same time.
- ☐ My wardrobe<sup>6</sup> is full of clothes that I buy and hardly ever wear.
- ☐ I like to buy designer labels<sup>7</sup>, even though they're more expensive.
- ☐ I like wearing fashionable clothes, but the price has to be reasonable<sup>8</sup>.
- ☐ I never buy clothes just because they're in fashion<sup>9</sup>.
- ☐ I like to dress in<sup>10</sup> clothes that are casual but still look quite fashionable.
- ☐ I'm always happy with what I've got on<sup>11</sup>.

21 42

- <sup>1</sup> buy things in shops
<sup>2</sup> put clothes on in a shop to see what they are like
<sup>3</sup> look good on me
<sup>4</sup> popular at that particular time
<sup>5</sup> look good together
<sup>6</sup> a large cupboard for keeping clothes in
<sup>7</sup> clothes made by famous designers, e.g. Versace, Dolce & Gabbana
<sup>8</sup> not expensive
<sup>9</sup> fashionable
<sup>10</sup> wear a particular type, style or colour of clothes
<sup>11</sup> am wearing

Language help

If two things match, they are a similar colour or type. If two things go with each other, they look good together.

Catherine's bag matches her coat. Catherine's bag goes with her coat.

If something suits you, it looks good on you. If something fits you, it is the right size.

B

In a clothes shop

A shop assistant [a person who works in a shop] is serving different customers [helping them to buy things].

Shop assistant Can I help you?

Customer 1 No, I'm being served, thanks.
 [another shop assistant is already helping me]

Shop assistant Do you need any help?

Customer 2 Yes, I've just tried on this jacket in a size 12, and it didn't really fit me; it's a bit tight [too small around the body; opp loose/big]. Have you got it in a bigger size?

Shop assistant We have got a size 14, but not in pink, I'm afraid.

Customer 2 Oh, that's a shame [that is disappointing; syn that's a pity]. OK. I'll leave it, thanks.
 [I have decided not to buy it; opp I'll take it/them]

Shop assistant OK. I'm sorry about that. ... Can I help you?

Customer 3 Yes, I'm looking for a skirt and this looks nice. [I want to find a skirt] Can I try it on?

Shop assistant Yes, of course. The changing rooms are down there. [the place where you can try on clothes]

